

Deborah Dart: Vice President, Chicopee Industrial Contractors

Deb's journey with Chicopee Industrial Contractors began when she was just 16 years old as a Chicopee High School work-study student. Starting from the ground up, she learned every aspect of the business, from accounting to marketing to VP of operations, gaining valuable experience along the way. Over three decades, of dedication and hard work led her to becoming Vice President, guided by the belief that hard work, determination, and teamwork can lead to incredible achievements.

As a leader, Deb is committed to fostering a culture of respect, collaboration, and empowerment. She balances her professional accomplishments with her personal life as a proud mother of four. Demonstrating the ability to balance professional achievements with personal fulfillment. Her story is powerful reminder that no matter where you start with hard work, belief in yourself and support for others, incredible accomplishments are always within reach.
